

Repair the Care Privacy Policy

Repair the Care is committed to protecting your privacy. We maintain the privacy of your information using security technologies and adhere to policies that prevent unauthorized use of your personal information.

What personal information do we collect and how is it used?

To make your experience more convenient, we gather information from you.

We collect personal information from visitors when they register to join an email alert list, subscribe to a newsletter, or take action on an issue using our service. This information includes: Your name, your address, and your professional affiliation. We may also monitor and track information such as visitor usage patterns of our web site, advocacy campaign participation, email engagement such as open rates and click-throughs. We compile this information into a statistical aggregate which we use for internal purposes including improving our web service, member communications and our client service.

The personal information we collect is always voluntarily submitted by you. This information is used by Repair the Care to communicate with you in the future (if you have given your permission for such contact), to send messages from you to decision makers which you have authorized, and to understand your interests and activities. We keep confidential all personal information entered during registration.

Unsubscribe

If, for any reason, you would like to be removed from any or all of our email lists, you can unsubscribe by simply clicking on the unsubscribe button located on the "Join Us" page.

Protecting your privacy

As part of our commitment to ensuring the privacy of our visitors, we do not sell or exchange names or any other personally identifiable information about our online visitors and members with, for example, mass marketers.

We also provide personal information to third parties on a completely confidential basis to enable a third party to perform certain tasks, such as maintain a membership database or send email alerts and/or newsletters, on our behalf. These third party providers are committed to protecting the privacy of our members and subscribers, and will not utilize your information for any other purpose but to provide the services which we contract for. We may share aggregate information about web site usage and traffic patterns, stripped of any personally identifiable information, to third parties to comply with various reporting obligations and for business or marketing purposes.

Use of cookies

Cookies are pieces of information that are stored on your computer and that can be used to help identify you when you visit our web site. We use cookies to make visiting and using our web site easier-- first, so that you don't have to continually re-enter information and second, so that we can tailor your visit to your expressed preferences.

Links to Other Sites

This web site provides links to several other third party web sites. While we make efforts to choose our links carefully, we cannot take any responsibility for the content of linked web sites, or for the privacy policies of web sites we link to. Since we do not control these web sites, we encourage you to review the privacy policies posted on these third party web sites prior to any use.

This privacy policy is in effect as of June 2007.
